

Six Jolly Miners

TYG 61

The musical score is written on five staves in G major (one sharp) and 4/4 time. The melody is simple and repetitive, with lyrics written below each staff. The first staff contains the first line of the verse. The second staff begins the chorus, marked 'CHORUS:'. The third and fourth staves continue the chorus. The fifth staff concludes the chorus. The lyrics are: 'Six jol - ly min - ers, we're not worth a pin, But when we get a bit o' coil we'll make the ket - tle sing. We'll rid - dle and we'll fid - dle and we'll make the earth go round, If you don't mind your troub - les you will have a mot - ty down, If you don't mind your troub - les you will have a mot - ty down.'

Six jol - ly min - ers, we're not worth a pin, But

CHORUS:
when we get a bit o' coil we'll make the ket - tle sing. We'll rid - dle and we'll fid - dle and we'll make the earth go round, If you don't mind your troub - les you will have a mot - ty down, If you don't mind your troub - les you will have a mot - ty down.

1. Six jolly miners, we're not worth a pin,
But when we get a bit o' coil we'll make the kettle sing.

CHORUS: We'll riddle and we'll fiddle and make the earth go round,
If you don't mind your troubles you will have a motty down,
If you don't mind your troubles you will have a motty down.

2. Two came from Derby and two from Derby town,
The others came from Uttibridge, they all came firing down.

CHORUS: We'll riddle and we'll fiddle and make the earth go round,
If you don't mind your troubles you will have a motty down,
If you don't mind your troubles you will have a motty down.
